Nuts to crack for the Natives. BY AN AMERICAN.

1. The Alpha and Omega of the Native creed is this: That all emigrants to our shores shall be treated as alieus, and denied the right of self-government " for twenty-one years at least," after declaring their intentions to become citizens. Now, would not such a measure so imbitter them against the country and institutions as to render them dangerous residents!

3. "No taxation without representation," was the battle-cry of our fathers. Now if all emigrants are to be unrepresented in our government for "at least twenty-one years" after their arrival, ought they not to receive the benefit of drawback on the salt, iron, calicoes, fustians, &c., that they consume during that time! Should "American Republicans" squeeze a part of their government expenses out of men whom they are unwilling to admit to the rights of citizens!

4. "Have we not native citizens enough to fill our offices without going among those of foreign birth!" is a question often put forth by the native orators with an air of irresistible confidence. I will answer it with another of the same sort: Have we not Free.

If our arist cracy of wealth can only distrachise the first, they will find it an easy matter to disfranchise the subject of the public to call and examine these Stoves, and also his other amountains, calculated to provide against cold and fundly quarrels.

6. "They would rob us of the Bible!" Ha! ha! ha! ha! I have known nations to be robbed of their property, of their liberty, and of every thing that pride or avariee could covet; I have seen the organ of acquisitiveness manifest itself in a thousand ways, and lay its hands on almost every thing except sermons and Bibles—but I cannot believe that any man would and Bibles-but I cannot believe that any man would! ever think of stealing these. From the Albany Daily Knickerbocker.

Wast Toot, June 3, 1844.

This is to certify that I, Willard Jenks, properiet of the West Troy Exchange fixed, having been afflicted with dealuses in one ear for the last twenty years, and in the other for the last year, so that it was impossible for me to hear the loudest voice, and aftertrying varieus remedies without improving my hearing in the least, I was induced to try Scanpa's Compound Acoustic Oil for the cure of dealess, and it is with great satisfaction that I am embied to state that it has perfectly restored my hearing, and I will be happy to see any person who wishes for information in relation to my case, at my place in West Troy.

WILLARD JENKS. ommission and Produce Merchants,

The editor of the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, J. Du So'le, Esq. has recently been cured of deafness by the use of this Oil, and has given his testimony as follows. In the Times of Sept. 21, 1844.

"Who wasts to Hean?—The best article extant for the cure of chronic deafness, arising from a recent cold, is "Scarpa's Acoust Oil." We speak from experience."
